Reflections on the week gone by.

COMPROMISED PM

This week in Parliament has been unprecedented and historic in the most unfortunate of ways. As the Leader of Opposition I tried to raise pressing concerns regarding our national security and attempted to quote from a book written by the Former Army Chief Gen. M.M. Naravane - this was too much for our government to bear and they stopped me from speaking.

Then Came the Lies & Fear.

This pattern has repeated itself.

THE GOVERNMENT'S CLAIM THAT THE BOOK DOESN'T EXIST IS A BLATANT LIE. I HAVE THE BOOK.

THE MODI GOVERNMENT ABANDONED OUR SOLDIERS AND OUR ARMY WHEN CHINA ATTACKED.

THE PM IS TERRIFIED OF THE TRUTH - HE DOESN'T HAVE THE GUTS TO ADDRESS THE LOK SABHA.

THE PM HAS SOLD OUT OUR FARMERS - AFTER GETTING ENTANGLED WITH EPSTEIN & ADANI.

The Modi government must respect the values of our democracy.

As Leader of Opposition I have a right to speak. It is my duty to raise issues of national security and public interest - they cannot stop me.

The first step towards change is

 TO RAISE
YOUR VOICE

If you believe Parliament should be a place where truth can be spoken, share this message and stand up for our democracy.
