A NEW VIEW

A NEW DEAL FOR INDIAN BUSINESS

In my article, I describe how today's monopolists, just like the East India Company, exploit government institutions, decimate competition, and increase inequality. Despite these "match-fixing" monopolists, numerous "play-fair" Indian businesses, ranging from small enterprises to large corporations, persevere. Their success stories give us hope. I have long been committed to protecting the voiceless; and now I will fight to provide play-fair businesses with what they are being denied: fairness and a level playing field.

TELANGANA WILL BE THE MODEL FOR CASTE CENSUS

WATCH FULL VIDEO HERE

Rahul Gandhi attended the State level consultation meeting on the Telangana Caste Census, which followed district level consultations with civil society and citizens. He praised the Telangana government for its initiative to democratise the process and give marginalised groups a voice in the formulation of the Census.
